

Table 1) The resultsof the analysis about the reasons to stop addiction

Common Themes	Class	Subclass
Perceived barriers in consumption continuity	Economic Problems	Decrease of income High cost of consumption Disruptions in the financial needs of the family Risk of supplying drugs
	Concerns arising from drug	Losing the primary impact of consumption/Uselessness of consumption The time-consuming preparation and consumption
Perceived threat	Personal effect and problems	The existence of material impurities Physical and mental diseases Cosmetic changes such as weight loss and disguise Fear of side effects Feel of destruction caused by side effects Lack of physical and sexual desire in case of continuing consumption Family pressure
	Family effects and problems	Creation of problems for families in the community Fear of rejection by one's family Family disintegration
	Social effects and problems	The loss of social prestige Fear of losing work / not finding work Being afraid of difficulties and legal pressures
Subjective norms	Attention to family expectations	For favor of spouse and children Encouragement of friends and family The importance of the demands of family Retain of Family and compensation of the past
	Attention to social status	Achieving business and social reputation Elimination of shame in the family Maintaining social relationships
Attitude to the behavior	Personal beliefs	Fatigue of drug consumption Hatred of drugs toward addiction The valuation of leaving drugs	Intolerance of the current situation (time-consuming) Stigmatization A better life after Rehabilitation Compensating for the past Find a better social status